

IRS Form W-4 Instructions

The W-4 form is a form used by the Internal Revenue Service. This form is required to ensure that Public Partnerships LLC (PPL) is withholding the correct amount of federal taxes from your paycheck.

When do I send this form?

You must fill out this form at the start of employment. If you are filing as exempt, you must complete and submit a new form each year starting on January 1st (depending upon availability of the current year's form) but no later than February 15th to maintain your exempt status. If your new form is not received by that time, PPL will default your status to Single with 0 allowances (highest taxable amount) until a new W-4 form has been received.

Where can I find this form?

For more information, you can go online to www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fw4.pdf.

Will PPL help me figure out how to file?

Since PPL is not a tax advisor, for advice on how to file, or for help regarding your specific tax situation, contact your local tax advisor or the IRS. Customer service can assist with questions regarding the below instructions.

NOTE: If you are having trouble figuring out what your withholding should be, the IRS does provide a W-4 calculator on their website:

What parts of the form are required?

In addition to your signature, several fields are required to complete your W-4. Your name, social security number, home address (no post office boxes), filing status, and number of allowances are all needed for an accurate form. You will see this on page 1 of your W-4 form toward the bottom of the page.

Are there parts that are not required?

The Personal Allowances, Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income, and Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs worksheets your W-4 form is included to aid you in filling out your W-4 properly for your situation. As this is included to help you, please keep this page for your records and do not send this back to PPL. To process your W-4 form, PPL will only need the first page of the form on which the section entitled "Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate" is located.
